

CONSENT FOR TREATMENT

I understand that Tracee Baker of SpryDog Massage is not a veterinarian, that the treatment / therapy given is not to be considered as veterinary treatment, and that massage is not a substitute for veterinary care. Any comments, suggestions, or recommendations offered in the course this treatment/therapy are not to be construed as veterinary medical advice.

I have read and understand the disclosure statement, above in regard to treatment/therapy to be given to my animal(s) by Tracee Baker, SpryDog Massage

I, _____, (Owner), wish to have this treatment/therapy for my animal(s) and give my consent and acknowledgement by signing.

I, _____, (Owner) certify that my animal(s) has/have received regular veterinary care and vaccinations as needed. I understand that there are some illnesses and conditions in which massage is contraindicated. I have informed Tracee of all my animals known physical conditions, limitations, medical conditions, and medications. It is my responsibility to update this information with Spry Dog and contact my veterinarian if my animals physical condition, or medical condition changes.

Currently, my animal, _____(name) has the following conditions:

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand the previous statements and consent to Tracee Baker and SpryDog to perform massage on my animal. I understand that, by signing, I am waiving any and all claims against Tracee Sprong and SpryDog Massage.

I understand that Tracee Baker will not diagnose medical issues or offer medical advice, but may contact my veterinarian to determine if massage can be performed. The amount of benefit, results, and tolerance to massage will vary from animal to animal but all efforts to enhance these things will be provided during the session.

The beneficial effects of massage include increased range of motion and improved flexibility, pain relief via the release of endorphins, increased blood flow and relaxation.
